DETAILS

The FBI's Washington Field Office in Washington, D.C., and the Prince William County Police Department in Virginia are asking for the public's assistance in identifying the persons responsible for a series of violent crimes that have occurred in Virginia in December of 2019.

On December 21, 2019, at 1:02 a.m., two unknown suspects robbed the Bowl America located at 10641 Balls Ford Road in Manassas, Virginia. One suspect brandished a firearm and the other wielded a baton. The unknown suspects took money from the register and fled on foot.

On December 23, 2019, at 1:13 a.m., two unknown suspects robbed the Comfort Inn and Suites located at 7530 Williamson Boulevard in Manassas, Virginia. One of the suspects brandished a firearm, while the other took money from the register. Both suspects fled on foot.

On December 24, 2019, at 12:00 a.m., two unknown suspects entered the Walgreens located at 14095 Jefferson Davis Highway in Woodbridge, Virginia, and ordered employees to give them money from one of the registers. The suspects then entered the back office, where they ordered employees to open the safe. One suspect brandished a firearm, while the other wielded a collapsible baton.

On December 26, 2019, at 2:25 a.m., the same unknown armed suspects entered the Denny's restaurant located at 8201 Sudley Road in Manassas, Virginia, and attempted to rob it. During the robbery, two people in the restaurant were shot. One of the victims died from their wounds, while another was hospitalized. The unknown suspects fled the restaurant on foot.
