REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $25,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the individuals responsible for the murder of Khamaya Donelson on July 3, 2022.

DETAILS

The FBI's Houston Field Office is seeking the public's assistance with the murder of Khamaya Donelson. On July 3, 2022, Donelson's mother picked up her two children, 5-year-old Khamaya Donelson and an 8-year-old son, from a 24-hour day care. At approximately 12:50 a.m., she and her children were in their vehicle stopped at the intersection of Northborough Drive and Rushcreek Drive in Houston, Texas. As a silver Honda Accord drove through the intersection heading west on Rushcreek Drive, the rear passenger began shooting out of the vehicle in the direction of a food store. A single shot struck the family's vehicle, entering the rear driver's side door, striking the children. They went straight to the emergency room where Khamaya was pronounced deceased.
