DISCIPLINARY POLICY

In support of [Agency Name]'s mission of public service to the city of/county of [city or county name] citizens, the [Agency Name] provides the needed technological resources needed to personnel to access FBI CJIS systems and information in support of the agency's mission. All agency personnel, with access to FBI Criminal Justice Information (CJI) or any system with stored FBI CJI, have a duty to protect the system and related systems from physical and environmental damage and are responsible for correct use, operation, care and maintenance of the information. All technology equipment: computers, laptops, software, copiers, printers, terminals, MDTs, mobile devices, live scan devices, fingerprint scanners, software to include RMS/CAD, operating systems, etc., used to process, store, and/or transmit FBI CJIS is a privilege allowed by [Agency Name], state CSO, and the FBI. To maintain the integrity and security of the [Agency Name]'s and FBI's CJIS systems and data, this computer use privilege requires adherence of relevant federal, state and local laws, regulations and contractual obligations. All existing laws and [Agency Name] regulations and policies apply, including not only those laws and regulations that are specific to computers and networks, but also those that may apply to personal conduct.

Misuse of computing, networking or information resources may result in temporary or permanent restriction of computing privileges up to employment termination. In some misuse situations, account privileges will be suspended to prevent ongoing misuse while under investigation. Additionally, misuse can be prosecuted under applicable statutes. All files are subject for search. Where follow-up actions against a person or agency after an information security incident involves legal action (either civil or criminal), the evidence shall be collected, retained, and presented to conform to the rules for evidence laid down in the relevant jurisdiction(s). Complaints alleging misuse of [Agency Name]'s computing and network resources and FBI CJIS systems and/or data will be directed to those responsible for taking appropriate disciplinary action.
