REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $20,000 for information leading to the arrest of Efrain Vasquez-Yanez.

REMARKS

Vasquez-Yanez is a known member of the Mara Salvatrucha (MS-13) gang with ties to El Salvador. He speaks both English and Spanish, although Spanish is his primary language. He was last seen in July of 2016, in Everett, Massachusetts.

CAUTION

On January 26, 2016, over 50 members and close associates of the Mara Salvatrucha (MS-13) street gang were indicted in the United States District Court, District of Massachusetts, Boston, Massachusetts, for conspiracy to engage in racketeering activities. These activities included murder, attempted murder, and drug trafficking. Efrain Vasquez-Yanez, a known MS-13 gang member, was charged with one count of RICO Conspiracy and one count of Conspiracy to Distribute Cocaine, and a federal warrant was issued for his arrest.

Vasquez-Yanez, a convicted felon, is known to have "homeboy" status within MS-13. To achieve this status, gang members must commit a murder and/or inflict serious physical injury on a person in the name of the gang. Vasquez-Yanez is also alleged to have served as "protection" for the interstate transport of multi-kilogram cocaine loads for MS-13, and is known to carry a firearm and/or knives at all times.

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS
