

New York's Five Families

In New York City, five major Italian-American Mafia families dominate organized crime activities:

- Bonnano crime family
- Columbo crime family
- Gambino crime family
- Genovese crime family
- Luchese crime family

While the Mafia—also known as La Cosa Nostra—may no longer possess the robust national presence and influence it once had, it remains a significant threat in the extended New York metropolitan area, New England, Philadelphia, Chicago, and Detroit.
