

SECTION 702

BY THE NUMBERS

Improved Post-Reform Compliance Rates

2023 FISC Opinion¹

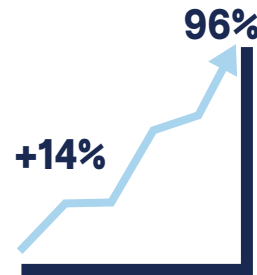

“ Measures are having the desired effect³ ”

“ FBI application of the querying standard appears to have improved.² ”

DOJ Semi-Annual Reports⁴

June 2022 – May 2023

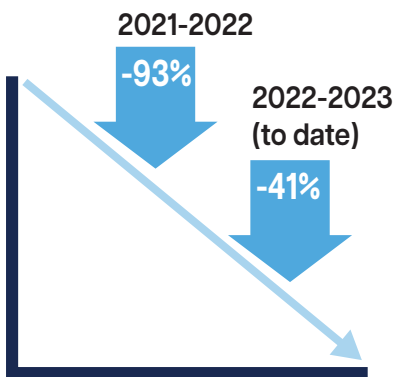

FBI Office of Internal Audit⁵

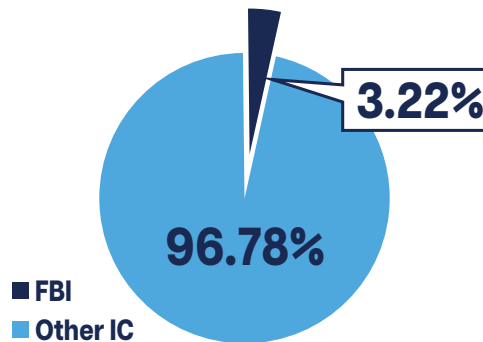

2023 Audit: Highest Risk Queries
+14% Improvement from Pre-Reform Audit

Judicious and Surgical Use of 702

U.S. Person Queries⁶

FISA Section 702 Targets Routed to FBI

<2% U.S. person queries resulted in content review in 2022

0 Non-national security investigations opened with 702 information

Indispensable Intelligence on the Biggest Threats

702's Contribution to FBI Raw Technical Reporting⁷

97% - Cyber

92% - Emerging tech

84%

Russia

90%

Iran

98%

North Korea

47%

China

¹ https://www.intel.gov/assets/documents/702%20Documents/declassified/2023/FISC_2023_FISA_702_Certifications_Opinion_April11_2023.pdf at 83.

Compliance rates cited reflect FBI's compliance with the FISA query standard.

² https://www.intel.gov/assets/documents/702%20Documents/declassified/2023/FISC_2023_FISA_702_Certifications_Opinion_April11_2023.pdf at 88.

³ https://www.intel.gov/assets/documents/702%20Documents/declassified/2023/FISC_2023_FISA_702_Certifications_Opinion_April11_2023.pdf at 83.

⁴ Compliance rates cited reflect FBI's compliance with the FISA query standard.

⁵ <https://www.fbi.gov/file-repository/fisa-query-audit-051023.pdf> at 6.

⁶ https://www.dni.gov/files/CLPT/documents/2023_ASTR_for_CY2022.pdf at 24.

⁷ Q1 and Q2 for FY23.