REWARD

The United States Department of State's Narcotics Rewards Program is offering a reward of up to $5 million for information leading directly to the arrest and/or conviction of Fausto Isidro Meza-Flores.

REMARKS

Meza-Flores is believed to be living in Mexico. He was previously a high-ranking leader of the Beltran-Leyva Transnational Criminal Organization (TCO), but through strong alliances with other cartels and the use of violence and corruption has become the leader of a very violent TCO, whose members are operating throughout parts of Mexico, Central and South America, and the United States.

CAUTION

Fausto Isidro Meza-Flores is the alleged leader of the Meza-Flores Transnational Criminal Organization (TCO), a heavily armed major drug trafficking organization based in Sinaloa, Mexico. The Meza-Flores TCO is allegedly responsible for the possession, distribution, and importation of large quantities of heroin, methamphetamine, cocaine, and marijuana into the United States, and has predominately controlled drug production, transportation, and distribution in several locations throughout Mexico.

Meza-Flores was originally indicted on May 2, 2012, in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia after he was charged with Conspiracy to Distribute Five Kilograms or More of Cocaine, Fifty Grams or More of Methamphetamine, One Kilogram or More of Heroin, and One Thousand Kilograms or More of Marijuana for Importation into the United States; and Use of a Firearm.

On May 7, 2019, a federal superseding indictment was issued for Meza-Flores in the United States District Court for the District of Columbia after he was charged with Conspiracy to Manufacture and Distribute Five Hundred Grams or More of Methamphetamine, Distribute One Kilogram or More of Heroin, and Distribute One Thousand Kilograms or More of Marijuana for Importation into the United States, and Use and Possession of a Firearm.
