Fathi is known to speak both English and Farsi.

CAUTION

Ahmad Fathi is wanted for his alleged involvement in a conspiracy to conduct a coordinated campaign of distributed denial of service ("DDoS") attacks against the United States financial sector and other United States companies from 2011 through 2013. Fathi is the director and owner of ITSecTeam, also known as Amnpardezesh Kharazmi, an Iranian Information Technology company. He allegedly provided his employees with attack scripts and shells for compromised computer systems which were later used as bots in the denial of service attacks.

On January 21, 2016, a grand jury in the United States District Court, Southern District of New York, indicted Fathi for his involvement in the scheme and a federal warrant was issued for his arrest after he was charged with conspiracy to commit, and aid and abet, computer intrusion.

If you have any information concerning this person, please contact your local FBI office or the nearest American Embassy or Consulate.
