DETAILS

The Charlotte Division of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) and the Fayetteville Police Department are seeking assistance from the public to locate Blake Deven.

While conducting interviews in a separate police investigation, several members of Blake's family reported they have not seen him in several years. On March 27, 2024, the Fayetteville Police Department and the FBI searched three locations in Fayetteville, North Carolina, as part of the expanding investigation to find Blake.

While investigating the disappearance of Blake Deven, investigators learned of an additional missing relative, now approximately 27-year-old London Deven, and are also seeking assistance from the public to locate her.

If you have any information concerning this case, please contact the FBI's Charlotte Field Office at (704) 672-6100 or the Fayetteville Police Department at (910) 578-2697. You may also contact your local FBI office, the nearest American Embassy or Consulate, or you can submit a tip online at tips.fbi.gov.
