DETAILS

Sierra Mae LaMar was last seen at approximately 6:00 a.m. on March 16, 2012, in the area of Santa Teresa Avenue and Dougherty Avenue in Morgan Hill, California. At that time, she was preparing to leave her home on foot on her way to catch the bus to school. Sierra never made it to the bus or school that morning and has not been heard from since that time.

On June 5, 2017, the Santa Clara District Attorney's Office announced that a jury in Santa Clara County Superior Court sentenced Antolin Garcia-Torres to life in prison without parole for the first degree-murder of Sierra Lamar, among other charges. The FBI and the Santa Clara County Sheriff's Office continue to seek information from the public that would assist in locating Sierra.
