CAUTION

The FBI's Miami Field Office is assisting the Miami-Dade Police Department in Florida with the search for Joshua Ismael Campos. Campos is wanted for the murder of a male victim at an apartment complex located on Southwest 270 Street in Miami, Florida. On July 25, 2021, it is alleged that Campos exited an apartment armed with a firearm and allegedly fired at least 18 rounds at the victim while his girlfriend and 5-year-old son were in close proximity.

On July, 26, 2021, Campos was charged with second degree murder, attempted second degree murder, and possession of a firearm by convicted felon or delinquent in the 11th Judicial Circuit, Miami-Dade County, Florida, and a state warrant was issued for his arrest. A federal arrest warrant was issued on February 23, 2024, by the United States District Court for the Southern District of Florida, Miami, Florida, after Campos was charged federally with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.

It is believed that Campos may be traveling with Maxine McCord, who is not a fugitive from the law. McCord is described as a Black female, date of birth: January 5, 2002, with black hair and brown eyes.

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS AND AN ESCAPE RISK
