CAUTION

On August 4, 2016, Ryan Rivera-Meister was caring for his girlfriend's 16-month-old baby boy while his girlfriend was at work in Grand Island, Nebraska. Later that day Rivera-Meister called 911 requesting medical assistance as the baby was not breathing. Paramedics found the baby unresponsive and after transporting the baby to a local hospital, it was determined that the baby needed immediate definitive care and was airlifted to a children's hospital in Aurora, Colorado, where the baby later died as a result of his injuries. It was later determined the infant suffered significant, severe abuse resulting in his death. Soon thereafter, Rivera-Meister fled Grand Island, Nebraska, and he is believed to have fled the United States for Guatemala.

On January 24, 2017, a state arrest warrant was issued in the County Court of Hall County, Nebraska, charging Ryan D. Rivera-Meister with committing child abuse intentionally causing death. On February 13, 2017, the United States District Court, District of Nebraska, issued a federal arrest warrant charging Rivera-Meister with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.
