CAUTION

Wilfredo Rodriguez is wanted for his involvement in the murder of a male relative. On June 7, 1983, Rodriguez allegedly stabbed the man seventeen times in Irvington, New Jersey, after the two had an argument. Rodriguez was subsequently arrested for this crime, stood trial, was found guilty of murder, and was sentenced to life in prison. Rodriguez was released on bail pending appeal of his conviction but, when the appeal was denied, Rodriguez failed to surrender for confinement. A bench warrant was issued for his arrest on October 6, 1987, in Essex County by the Superior Court of New Jersey. On May 5, 1988, a federal arrest warrant for Rodriguez was issued by the United States District Court, District of New Jersey, Newark, New Jersey, after he was charged with unlawful flight to avoid prosecution.
