February 21, 2019
Newsoms, Virginia

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $5,000 for information leading to the arrest, prosecution, and conviction of the person(s) responsible for Cynthia's death.

DETAILS

Cynthia Carver was reported missing on February 22, 2019, to the Southampton County Sheriff's Office. She was last seen on Thomaston Road in Newsoms, Virginia, at approximately 9:00 p.m., on February 21st. She was also seen running various errands in the Norfolk area earlier in the day. Evidence at her home on Everett Street in Newsoms suggested she may have been abducted, and her body was recovered on March 19, 2019, in the southern area of Suffolk, Virginia.

The case is being investigated jointly by the FBI and Southampton County Sheriff's Office.

Anyone with information about Cynthia's disappearance and death is asked to call the FBI's tip line at (757) 609-2482, or the Southampton County Sheriff's Office. You may also contact your local FBI office, the nearest American Embassy or Consulate, or you can submit a tip online at tips.fbi.gov.
