

SEEKING INFORMATION

ARMED ROBBERIES

Maryland; Washington, District of Columbia; Virginia
August and September 2015

DESCRIPTION

Sex: na

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $10,000 for information leading to the arrests of the suspects involved in these armed robberies.

REMARKS

The unknown individuals were described as Black males who wore dark-colored clothing during most of the robberies. One of them was described as having long dreadlocks. Another one was described as wearing black shoes with red coloring on the top.

DETAILS

Law enforcement authorities are seeking unknown individuals in connection with several armed robberies at 7-Eleven stores in Northern Virginia, Washington, D.C., and Maryland from August 27, 2015 to September 3, 2015.

The armed robberies occurred as follows:

- August 27, 2015, 2:03 a.m., at 6800 Livingston Road, Oxon Hill, MD;
- August 27, 2015, 2:50 a.m., at 2405 Fairhaven Avenue, Alexandria, VA;
- August 27, 2015, 4:13 a.m., at 3101 Rhode Island Avenue, NE, Washington, D.C.;
- August 31, 2015, 1:05 a.m., at 3100 Lockheed Boulevard, Alexandria, VA;
- August 31, 2015, 2:07 a.m., at 14001 Baltimore Avenue, Laurel, MD;
- September 3, 2015, 8:40 a.m., at 6138 North Kings Highway, Alexandria, VA.

The unknown individuals displayed weapons during each robbery. During the two robberies on August 31, 2015, four men entered the stores and one of them had a long gun. They were seen fleeing the scene of the robberies in an unknown sedan.

To view security video from these robberies, please visit this link.

SHOULD BE CONSIDERED ARMED AND DANGEROUS

The FBI, Fairfax County, Virginia Police Department, Prince George's County, Maryland Police Department and the Washington, D.C. Metropolitan Police Department are investigating these armed robberies and request that anyone with information call the FBI at 202-278-2000. You may also contact your local FBI office or the nearest American Embassy or Consulate.

Field Office: Washington D.C.