On March 6, 2016, City of Richmond, Virginia, police officers were dispatched to the 1400 block of Armfield Road in the Town and Country Townhomes and Apartments for a report of a shooting. On scene, the officers learned that Clemente Jimenez-Lopez and two additional male victims had just arrived at the apartment complex when a light-colored four-door sedan stopped in the roadway and its occupants exited, confronting the victims. One of the subjects demanded, in Spanish, their belongings. Jimenez-Lopez and the two other victims each ran in different directions. The two male victims were chased, assaulted and robbed. After the subjects left the scene, the two male victims found Jimenez-Lopez with a single gunshot wound to the head.

Subject #1 is believed to be a Hispanic male, approximately 5'8" to 5'10", mid-20s, thin, medium-to-dark complexion, with tattoos on the left side of his neck. At the time of the attempted robbery, this subject was wearing black pants and a black jacket with no hood.

Subject #2 is believed to be a Hispanic male, approximately 5'2" to 5'5", early 20s, very skinny, curly hair, and was armed with a handgun.

On March 5, 2016, a male victim was allegedly robbed by two unknown subjects in the parking lot of the Centro Cervecero El Deseo Restaurant Bar and Grill located in the 1700 block of Broad Rock Boulevard, in Richmond, Virginia. The victim was approached by two armed Hispanic males who demanded he put his hands up. The two subjects proceeded to rob the male victim, and they departed in a light-colored four-door sedan occupied by additional individuals.
