

SEEKING INFORMATION

DE'ANNZELLO MCDONALD

Homicide Victim
Portland, Oregon
June 11, 2020

REWARD

The FBI is offering a reward of up to $15,000 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the individual(s) responsible for the murder of De'annzello McDonald.

DETAILS

At approximately 12:35 a.m., on June 11, 2020, officers from the Portland Police Bureau responded to a report of gunfire at the 600 block of NE 162nd Avenue in Portland, Oregon. When they arrived, they found the body of 28-year-old De'annzello McDonald. Surveillance video showed McDonald walking up a flight of stairs with two men. A fourth man ran towards them, and then ran away holding something in his right hand. Based on information gathered to date, investigators believe the suspect to be a young Black man in his mid 20s, average height to 6'0" tall, with a thin frame and possibly braided hair. The suspect was wearing a light, multi-colored top jacket, dark or black pants, and a light-colored hat. He was seen getting into a blue or gray Ford Crown Victoria sedan.
