DETAILS

The Federal Bureau of Investigation's Philadelphia Field Office is seeking the public's assistance in identifying the unknown individual(s) responsible for the murder of Gino DiPietro in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. On December 12, 2012, at approximately 2:55 p.m., DiPietro was shot to death as he emerged from his vehicle near his residence in Philadelphia.

Video from surveillance cameras in the area of the murder shows a vehicle (the getaway vehicle) repeatedly driving by the area where DiPietro was killed in the hours prior to the murder. An unidentified male (the shooter) was seen approaching and shooting DiPietro multiple times. The shooter was also observed running away from the scene and getting into the getaway vehicle. The driver of this vehicle was later arrested, convicted, and is serving a state prison sentence. The FBI is seeking information regarding the shooter and any other individuals involved in the planning of the murder.

If you have any information concerning this case, please contact your local FBI office, the nearest American Embassy or Consulate, or you can submit a tip online at tips.fbi.gov.
