DETAILS

On October 19, 2002, the remains of an unidentified male, of unknown race and ethnicity, were found wrapped in a blanket/quilt located off of Colorado State Highway 114 in Saguache County, Colorado. The Colorado Bureau of Investigation assisted the Saguache County Sheriff's Office in the recovery of the remains. Law enforcement officials have released facial reconstruction images of the man whose body was discovered. The remains were clad in black boxer shorts and a black Harley Davidson T-shirt from Fort Washington, Maryland. A coroner's examination concluded that the cause of death was homicide.
