DETAILS

The FBI's Houston Field Office is seeking the public's assistance with the murder of Khamaya Donelson. On July 3, 2022, Donelson's mother picked up her two children, 5-year-old Khamaya Donelson and an 8-year-old son, from a 24-hour day care. At approximately 12:50 a.m., she and her children were in their vehicle stopped at the intersection of Northborough Drive and Rushcreek Drive in Houston, Texas. As a silver Honda Accord drove through the intersection heading west on Rushcreek Drive, the rear passenger began shooting out of the vehicle in the direction of a food store. A single shot struck the family's vehicle, entering the rear driver's side door, striking the children. They went straight to the emergency room where Khamaya was pronounced deceased.
