DETAILS

The Federal Bureau of Investigation's Memphis Field Office, federal partners, and the Memphis Police Department in Tennessee are seeking the public's assistance in identifying the individual(s) responsible for the deaths of Ashlynn Denae' Lockett and LeQuan Dequez Boyd on January 20, 2020.

On the night of January 20, 2020, Memphis police officers reported to a shooting at a Hickory Hill residence in Memphis, Tennessee. When police arrived on the scene, they found six-year-old Ashlynn Lockett and sixteen-year-old LeQuan Boyd had been struck by gunfire while they were inside their home. Lockett and Boyd were transported to local hospitals, where they both died as a result of their injuries.

This case is being investigated as part of the Department of Justice's Operation Legend, a coordinated federal and local law enforcement initiative to fight violent crime.

Anyone with information regarding these homicides is encouraged to contact the FBI's Memphis Field Office at (901) 747-4300, the FBI tip line at 1-800-CALL-FBI (225-5324), or may submit tips at tips.fbi.gov. You may also contact the Memphis Police Department's Crime Stoppers tips hotline at (901) 528-CASH (2274).

You may also contact your local FBI office, or the nearest American Embassy or Consulate.
