TRIPLE HOMICIDE INVESTIGATION -- COLORADO

Homicide Victims
Littleton, Colorado
January 27, 2002

DETAILS

On January 27, 2002, at approximately 11:50 p.m., Erin Golla, Robert "Bobby" Zajac, and James Springer were shot to death inside the closed AMF Broadway Bowling Alley in Littleton, Colorado. Erin and James were the last two employees to close the bowling alley that night, and Bobby was a frequent customer of the establishment. Before the trio could depart the bowling alley, the three victims came into contact with an unknown male who shot them to death during an apparent robbery. When a friend arrived to pick up one of the victims, the friend entered the bowling alley, found the victims, and called police. The unknown suspect was last seen wearing a dark trench coat and driving a late 2000s model dark pickup truck.

SUSPECTS

The suspect is described as a White male, weighing approximately 220 pounds, approximately 6'0", with a muscular build. He also had a bald, shaved head.
