In August 1994, the Baltimore City Police Department (BCPD), Maryland, investigated the sexual assault of a white female who was attacked outside in the rear of a dwelling at approximately 0300 hours.

On April 5, 1995, the Howard County Police Department (HCPD), Maryland, investigated the sexual assault of a white female who was attacked in the parking lot of her apartment complex. This assault also occurred at approximately 0300 hours. Both of the cases (BCPD & HCPD) have been linked by DNA.

On April 7, 1995, two white females were attacked in Howard County, Maryland. The victims were attacked outside, with one event at approximately 0300 hours and the second event at approximately 0410 hours. The suspect description and method of operation in these cases are very similar to the two previous cases listed above; however, there is no DNA for these cases.
