NamUs #: 3081

On May 9, 2009, Richard Ingram was last seen at the Rainer Inn Army Lodging Hotel in Fort Lewis, WA. He had recently returned from vacationing overseas, checked in at the hotel, but did not return to work after the weekend. Welfare checks at the hotel revealed that he had left all his belongings behind to include his identifications, cell phone, credit cards and vehicle. The only item missing was his U.S. passport, but it has not been used. He had recently complained of memory loss, headaches and nosebleeds. Richard's family reported that they had received emails from Richard with suicidal idealizations. He is a U.S. Army Reserve Soldier and a known survivalist.
