On October 11, 1980, the body of an unidentified black female, approximately 25 years of age, was recovered near Murrell Road, an isolated rural road, in Rockledge, Florida. The victim was wearing a red Pringles Chip t-shirt, blue jeans, and white shoes. Dental records, fingerprints, and DNA are available for comparison.

During the investigation, records from the Pinellas County Sheriff's Detention Center identified the victim as possibly being "Joanne English" (as shown in the photograph above). However, authorities determined the victim provided a false name, (Joanne English), SSN, and DOB at the time of her incarceration.
