Agency Case: #5804-94 / 74-376-15

On Wednesday, October 26, 1994, a hunter found the remains of a white female, between 30 – 50 years old, on Bamfield Road, near the Alcona Dam. The dam is located just outside the town of Glennie, MI. It is estimated this victim died one to four years prior to her remains being found. The victim suffered a fracture to her left arm just above the elbow years prior to her death. The broken bone in the victim's arm was potentially the result of a vehicle accident years prior to death. She also displayed evidence of injuries to the spinal column in the upper and lower thoracic region. For additional information and photographs regarding this victim, refer to the National Missing and Unidentified Persons System (NamUs), case report number UP# 8371.
