On 10/09/1995, the body of an unidentified Black or Hispanic male was found in a wooded area adjacent to the Garden Street School in Brewster, NY. The unidentified male was well-groomed, clean-shaven, with short black hair with a slightly gray, receding hairline, and a medium, brown-skinned complexion. The teeth were in good condition and appeared to have no signs of dental work. The man was dressed wearing a gold-chained crucifix necklace, brown leather Dockers penny loafers, dress socks, tan Hagger pants size 33x30, and two plaid button-down shirts: (1) long-sleeve green, black and yellow Kenneth Gordon shirt on the outside, and (2) short-sleeve Gentleman's Row blue, green and red shirt underneath. The deceased was last seen buying two expensive blankets at a curtain shop in New Rochelle on 10/07/1995. It is believed the male traveled to Brewster on Metro-North.
