Numerous investors entrusted Tomera with funds to be used as secured loans in a real estate project in San Francisco, California, but Tomera allegedly deceived investors by misrepresenting the level of seniority of the investors' deeds of trust and the manner in which the investment funds were used. Investors ultimately lost over $1 million as a result of the fraud. A federal arrest warrant was issued for Tomera in the United States District Court, Northern District of California, San Francisco Division, on June 21, 2012, after he was charged with four counts of wire fraud and one count of mail fraud.
